involved in a gasoline barge fire and explosion at LaGrange, Mo., died Friday, raising the known death toll in the accident to three.

Capt. William R. Opitz, 37, of Memphis, Tenn., died at St. Mary's Hospital. He was burned over 95 per cent of his body in the Monday night blast at the Triangle Refineries, Inc., terminal dock.

The bodies of terminal manager Glenn Maples, 41, and an employe, Albert Frieden, 23, were recovered near the scene of the blast.

Two members of the crew of the towboat Martin and a truck driver were still missing and three towboat crew members remained hospitalized.

Baccalaureate will also be held Sunday in Bernie at 2 p.m. and in Advance at 2 p.m. The Rev. Roy Sturgell will be the speaker at Bernie and the Rev. Frank Heitman at Advance.

Tone Bender Taken

Police reported this morning that a tone bender valued at $35 was stolen sometime yesterday between 4 and 6 p.m. from the High School cafeteria. Also reported stolen was an amplifier pedal and two coral cords. No values were given for these. Police are continuing the investigation.

Lee Trial Dates Set

BLOOMFIELD - Herb Lee, Dexter man arrested in a gambling raid Jan. 9, is scheduled to be tried June 20, in New Madrid County.

Lee is also slated to be tried June 20, in Stoddard County, on charges of selling liquor to a minor.

Lee is being represented by Jim Spain, Bloomfield lawyer and state representative, and because Spain is in the current General Assembly session, the trail may be delayed.

Roosevelt Recovering

GENEVA (AP) — James Roosevelt, 61, eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was recovering well today from a stab wound in the back received during a family dispute at his home late Thursday, hospital officials said.

But a spokesman for Geneva's cantonal hospital said he will not be discharged this weekend.

"His condition is extremely satisfactory but he will not be able to leave the hospital before next week," the spokesman said.

Roosevelt's wife, Gladys, 47, was taken to a psychiatric clinic after the incident. Police said no charges were preferred.

The incident occurred a week after the balding, bespectacled Roosevelt initiated divorce proceedings before a Geneva court. Mrs. Roosevelt is Roosevelt's third wife. They were married in 1956 and have one child.

$46,400 Grant Approved

The Economic Development Administration in Washington, D. C., yesterday announced a $46,400 grant to the Bootheel Economic Development District, which includes Dunklin, Mississippi, New Madrid, Pemiscot, Scott and Stoddard counties.

Pat Lea, chairman of the council, said this morning this money comprises 60 per cent of the council's operating expenses for the coming year. It includes funds for salaries, office expenses, telephones, travel allowances, etc. Lea explained the other 40 per cent, which places the amount above $70,000, comes from funds appropriated from the six counties and the 55 incorporated cities within the counties that are participating in economic growth planning.

Brochure to be Ready

Sikeston's Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee will complete industrial brochures next week, Chamber Manager O. D. Clayton announced today.

Clayton explained that the brochure is very comprehensive and entails all details about the city that major prospective industrial concerns are interested with. Clayton said the completion of this project is a "major step" forward.

He commended the industrial committee for its work. Bud Davis is chairman of the committee. About 50 brochures will be available initially.

The POWER of FAITH WOODI ISHMAEL

Danish sculptor Albert Bertol Thorvaldsen (1770-1844) wanted his figure of Christ to be his masterpiece. He envisioned a heroic, triumphant figure with head and arms raised in strength and victory.

After weeks of modeling the figure in clay, Thorvaldsen felt he had achieved his goal. He left the figure in his studio to set and dry for a few days before making the molds for casting. During that time there was much dampness and rain, which leaked into the

Upon his return, much to his horror, he saw that his beautiful statue was ruined. From the dampness the head and hands had drooped, and to the sculptor it was a defeated Christ. The dejected sculptor studied the figure for a long time. Suddenly he saw new meaning in it. It was not defeat he saw—it was compassion. It was a humble sympathetic Christ, full of love, with his arms outstretched to all the world. Thorvaldsen had his masterpiece. "The Christ" can be seen today in Protestant Cathedral in Copenhagen,

Will Socialite's Mom Ground Flying Fiancée?

Curvy stewardess Anita Gomez rates wings but no halo in the eyes of her fiancé's socialite mother.

In fact, Anita's engagement to prominent young Senator Arthur Fincastle is frowned on by the whole, ambitious clan in the new Mary Worth story starting Monday . . . especially when she spunkily champions servants in the family compound.

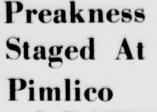

With the powerful Fincastles against it, does this riches-to-rags romance have a chance?

If You Were the Judge

Man Checks into Motels, Steals, Pleads Innocent

By Jack Strauss, LL.B. Second-story Sam decided that he was getting too old to climb stairs. Consequently, he concentrated his activities on one-story motels, and, his thing was stealing television sets.

Dressed to kill, he'd register at a motel, relax with a drink until midnight and then depart through a window with the television set that had graced his room. When finally, caught, Sam had more television sets than the Smith Bros. had cough drops. Nevertheless, charged with burglary, he insisted that the charges against him had to be dismissed.

"I know the law," he told the judge. "Burglarly requires a breaking and an entry. Well! I never broke into a motel in my life. Not only did I register, but I was always ushered to my room with all the pom and ceremony of any other nattily dressed guest."

"While he may not have broken in physically," retorted the District Attorney, "Sam faked his way in. Instead of a crowbar, he used words to gain entrance. For all intents and purposes, it amounted to the same thing.'

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you let Sam off the hook on the burglary charges?

This is how the judge ruled: NO! The judge held that it is as derelict to trick one into an entry as to shove one's fist through a glass door, though the latter may be more hazardous and painful. (Based upon a 1963 Utah Supreme Court Decision)

Tone Bender Taken

Police reported this morning that a tone bender valued at $35 was stolen sometime yesterday between 4 and 6 p.m. from the High School cafeteria. Also reported stolen was an amplifier pedal and two coral cords. No values were given for these. Police are continuing the investigation.

Lee Trial Dates Set

BLOOMFIELD — Herb Lee, Dexter man arrested in a gambling raid Jan. 9, is scheduled to be tried June 20, in New Madrid County.

Lee is also slated to be tried June 20, in Stoddard County, on charges of selling liquor to a minor.

Lee is being represented by Jim Spain, Bloomfield lawyer and state representative, and because Spain is in the current General Assembly session, the trail may

Roosevelt Recovering

GENEVA (AP) — James Roosevelt, 61, eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was recovering well today from a stab wound in the back received during a family dispute at his home late Thursday, hospital officials said.

But a spokesman for Geneva's cantonal hospital said he will not be discharged this weekend.

"His condition is extremely satisfactory but he will not be able to leave the hospital before next week," the spokesman said. Roosevelt's wife, Gladys, 47, was taken to a psychiatric clinic after the incident. Police said no charges were preferred.

The incident occurred a week after the balding, bespectacled Roosevelt initiated divorce proceedings before a Geneva court. Mrs. Roosevelt is Roosevelt's third wife. They were married in 1956 and have one child.

'DON'T BE A MEDIOCRE AMERICAN'

Out of the velvet-like royal blue past, a tall, straight figure emerges. His apparel is a curious, yet seemingly appropriate combination of historical American clothing. His hair is snowy white. His eyes are sad and purposeful. He has a courageous face with rough, weathered cheeks. He stops several yards away.

I stand dumbfounded before him, surrounded in a vast, dark emptiness. The only light is now upon his face. I have no inkling of who this strange man is or why he is here, but somehow he looks vaguely familiar.

THE SERMON FOR THIS SUNDAY

THE HOUR IS NOW!

The POWER of FAITH WOODI ISHMAEL

Danish sculptor Albert Bertol Thorvaldsen (1770-1844) wanted his figure of Christ to be his masterpiece. He envisioned a heroic, triumphant figure with head and arms raised in strength and victory.

After weeks of modeling the figure in clay, Thorvaldsen felt he had achieved his goal. He left the figure in his studio to set and dry for a few days before making the molds for casting. During that time there was much dampness and rain, which leaked into the

Upon his return, much to his horror, he saw that his beautiful statue was ruined. From the dampness the head and hands had drooped, and to the sculptor it was a defeated Christ. The dejected sculptor studied the figure for a long time. Suddenly he saw new meaning in it. It was not defeat he saw—it was compassion. It was a humble sympathetic Christ, full of love, with his arms outstretched to all the world. Thorvaldsen had his masterpiece. "The Christ" can be seen today in Protestant Cathedral in Copenhagen,

DIAMOND PRICE FACTS:

Don't spend more than you can afford. A good rule to follow Spend about a month of your salary on the engagement ring. But make sure you get the most for your money. In the ring style that pleases her most.

DIAMOND BUYING FACTS:

About half of all engagement rings are chosen by boy and girl together. But in many cases the young man buys the diamond alone. Or he talks it over with us first and then brings his girl in for final selection. It's up to you!

DIAMOND STYLING FACTS:

Modern girls are individualists. Some want an absolutely perfect diamond even if it is smaller. Others want the largest stone possible even if it has slight flaws. Some want ultra-modern, others traditional styling. These are the things to talk over with us.

COME IN! AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!

We have helped so many young couples. We can help you to come to the right decision. Let your wishes and our experience be the guide. For a lifetime of happiness with your diamond.

If You Were the Judge

Man Checks into Motels, Steals. Pleads Innocent

By Jack Strauss, LL.B. Second-story Sam decided that he was getting too old to climb stairs. Consequently, he concentrated his activities on one-story motels, and, his thing was stealing television sets.

Dressed to kill, he'd register at a motel, relax with a drink until midnight and then depart through a window with the television set that had graced his room. When finally, caught, Sam had more television sets than the Smith Bros. had cough drops. Nevertheless, charged with burglary, he insisted that the charges against him had to be dismissed.

"I know the law," he told the judge. "Burglarly requires a breaking and an entry. Well! I never broke into a motel in my life. Not only did I register, but I was always ushered to my room with all the pom and ceremony of any other nattily dressed guest.'

'While he may not have broken in physically," retorted the District Attorney, "Sam faked his way in. Instead of a crowbar, he used words to gain entrance. For all intents and purposes, it amounted to the same thing.

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you let Sam off the hook on the burglary charges?

This is how the judge ruled: NO! The judge held that it is as derelict to trick one into an entry as to shove one's fist through a glass door, though the latter may be more hazardous and painful. (Based upon a 1963 Utah Supreme Court Decision)
